

Living with Integrity: Standing Up for Compassion and Justice

Join Buddhist nun, Venerable Thubten Chodron for an evening talk about racial diversity, ethnicity, and inequality.

Integrity means living by the values we cherish, even when they are challenged. Venerable Chodron offers heartfelt wisdom on why we should never lose hope, even in trying times.

With a realistic perspective, we can stand up for what we believe in as we seek to put our principles into practice.

INTEGRITY

EQUALITY

COMPASSION

Through open dialogue and mindfulness, we can work to end prejudice, oppression, and inequality when we observe it in our own hearts and in our communities.

- Tuesday, October 10
- 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM
- Lake Coeur d'Alene Room in the Edminster Student Union Building (SUB) at NIC

Venerable Thubten Chodron, noted international author and teacher, is the abbess of Sravasti Abbey in Newport, WA. She is the author of many books, including Approaching the Buddhist Path, part of a multi-volume series co-authored with His Holiness the Dalai Lama. Many of her teachings are available on her website: www.thubtenchodron.org and the abbey website: www.sravasti.org

For further information, please contact Chris (208-667-3813) or Susan (208-512-1524).
Sponsored by Coeur d'Alene Dharma Friends and NIC Diversity Events.

This event is free and open to the public; donations to Sravasti Abbey are welcome.